

April, 2019

With the arrival of spring and another boating season, EPICA's attorney Billy Fox has confirmed that the organization will be able to clear the brush and debris from the community boat ramp without impinging on the Burbage ownership rights.

In order to avoid an expense to the organization, EPICA will be seeking member volunteers to help with the boat ramp clearing. Stay tuned for details...

